ANALYSIS OF THE SUBJECT

2. RECOMMENDATION that the Vietnamese Government, through the ministries of Health, Education and Culture, issue to be distributed to schools & libraries, i.e., a brochure containing extracts from the finest works of Northern authors about the creation of individual and national freedom, a brochure containing extracts from writings of Vietnamese and foreign authors, converts from religions of underground religions, and a brochure containing information regarding the Vietnamese emigration. Also plan to have published current periodicals, and prints for mass distribution include giving information regarding local underground publications.

2. In order to realize the projected plan, it is expected that the services of approximately 10-15 individuals, predominantly those from European countries, will be utilized. INDIVIDUAL 1, previously located in Vienna, has been engaged in preliminary investigations for the ASSISTANCE activities. He has arranged with two local book stores for a display of German literature, most of which is today transformed directly into American. This man has been established with INDIVIDUAL 2, which organization has agreed to help distribute ASSISTANCE literature. INDIVIDUAL 1, according to ASSISTANCE 2, is a childhood acquaintance of ASSISTANCE 6 and was introduced to ASSISTANCE 2 by his (INDIVIDUAL 1's) brother-in-law, a former U.S. member now in the United States. ASSISTANCE 2 agrees to send ASSISTANCE 21 to Vienna to direct and coordinate the ASSISTANCE activities. ASSISTANCE 21 will not be eligible for U.S. citizenship until October 1954. He still bears no definite word as to whether or not the Americans will admit him to citizenship during the period of the Festival. Therefore, it is a great if not impossible for ASSISTANCE 21 to obtain a visa, and when it is it may have to wait on INDIVIDUAL 2 or someone else.

1. 4. In your earliest convenience, please let us know whether or not you can be available for this assignment. If so, additional details regarding AEROMARINE Beaufort activities will be forwarded at a later date.

5. TTK: The 90-member Ukrainian Soviet Delegation presented its demands in Paris as scheduled for the following audiences in Vienna: 16 April at 1000 hours, 18 April at 1000 hours, and 19 April at 1500 hours. According to the Radio publication, Kharkivska, of 4 March 1959, the following two were named as directors of the group: SERGE VITSEKIV and JASOF PAVLYAKOV. On 18 March 1959 Pervye Ukrayin'ye followed the following two were listed as members of the group: V. KOTYUKOV and R. PAVLYAKOV. ALEXANDRIV told the undersigned he had informed his French contacts regarding the Ukrainian's experience in Vienna and was going to suggest that someone be in Vienna to meet him.
